

LIVESTOCK TRANSIT COVERAGE

WHEN YOUR CARGO IS LIVESTOCK, PUT 100 YEARS' OF EXPERIENCE TO WORK FOR YOU.

A truck filled with livestock has a highway accident. Many animals have died while the trapped survivors need immediate attention. To complicate matters, livestock have escaped and are running free on the highway where they could cause accidents or die.

It's a situation you may have witnessed or experienced. As a livestock transit insurer since 1916, The Hartford has helped countless livestock haulers after accidents like these. We know they happen quickly and require an immediate response.

We also know livestock transportation is not an '8-to-5' industry. So if such an accident ever happens to you, we'll be there, night or day, to help handle your immediate needs and your claim.
